April 10 1895

Miss Fannie Wilson
my dear beloved friend
it is my pleasure to take this beautiful
after noon to ans.
your most kind and
welcom letter that Came to hand the 6 I was glad to hear from you and to hear that you
was well

I am well at this time and I hope these few lines will find you the same
there is no use to express my love to you for I have of tin times told you I hope you will not find no other fellow be fore I can see you again but if you do just tell me
and I will try and
keepe him off untill
I see if you
will not have
I wish you would not haff to study
so long
on that little question it looks like that you would give me
some satisfaction

the road is long and loensom the sea is wide and deep O think of me miss fannie when I am not there to speak

how come
you to move in to town What has Become of uncle
Ben Crumpler
Well I Close
By asking you
To Wright
